

Cowboys From Texas

K.D.Cashion - 1982

1. Everywhere I go all I see are boot and jeans,
Trophy buckles, and cowboy hats,
I don't know what it means,
'Cause I don't see no horses tied outside of the bars,
And when they say, "Mustang," they mean a Ford car.

Chorus:

And when they say they're from Texas,
it strikes me real strange,

'Cause I never heard a Texas accent change.

These cowboy clothes have become quite a fad.

There's more cowboys from Texas

Than Texas ever had.

2. I was born in Cleburne, Texas,
Lived in Waco and Ft. Worth.
Married a girl from San Benito.
We're Texans by birth.
Raised in Brush Country south of San Antone,
And I'm proud that I can say,
"Texas is my home."

3. Where I was raised in south Texas,
Drug store cowboys were mostly jokes.
Real cowboys looked like us,
Just regular folks.
Now these modern cowboys dance to a different tune,
With feathers trailing from the hats of their cowboy costumes.

4. I'll still be wearing old blue jeans
And drinking Pearl beer,
Dancing to "Faded Love" year after year, Long after the good o'boy has taken off his boots,
And the hard working Redneck takes off his cowboy suit.
