

DID'JA' HEAR?

Ken Cashion, 2007

1. I don't watch TV any more.

I don't want my news hard core.

But I heard a man on the radio say,

"Did'ja' hear, Jack Palance died today?"

Chorus --

He was a one-arm, pusher-upper.

A one stare, shutter-upper.

Did'ja' hear, Jack Palance died today?

He was a stand-up, putter-upper.

A no-bluff, rougher-upper.

Did'ja' hear, Jack Palance died today?

2. Never in the West was there a man like Shane.

How'd they make a movie 'bout a man with that name?

But a lot like old Jack was in the West,

And if he'd been there, he'd been one of the best.

Chorus –

3. He played cowboys and indians equally well.

And you knew that old Jack was gonna give'em Hell.

But no matter how bad he was, you hoped he'd be OK.

But did'ja' hear, Jack Palance died today?

Chorus --

4. He wasn't much to look at, we agree.

In truth, he was rather plain ugly.

But he had an inner beauty that one could trust

And that's what should matter to us.

Last chorus –

He was a one-arm, pusher-upper.

A one stare, shutter-upper.

Did'ja' hear, Jack Palance died today?

He was a stand-up, putter-upper.

A no-bluff, rougher-upper.

Did'ja'hear, Jack Palance died today?

Did'ja' hear, Jack Palance passed away?
