

Places I Have Been
K.D.Cashion - 1972

1. I hear that you are upset,
And you need a little rest.
Take a trip, my friend,
To the places I like best.
I wish that I could go along
And show you where I have been,
But I guess that it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.

2. I have seen sunsets through windmills
On distant Spanish isles.
Castles in Spain
With the wonder of a child.
London Bridge, Tower clocks,
And the dark, rolling Thames,
But I guess that it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.

3. I have seen skirted men on Fiji Isles
And Sahara desert sand.
Hawaiian surf, and in their place,
Dark desert men.
In their multicolored tents
I drank their tea made of mint,
But it looks like it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.

4. I have seen gray-brick Berlin Walls,
Red Guards, and green kids.
I ate with them, drank with them,
And did what they did.
Sat with them by the hour,
And called each one my friend.
But it looks like it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.

5. There is a place that you should go
And take a note for me
To a little coastal town
On the east Indian Sea.
Her hair will be as red
As the sand in the wind.
Please, tell her it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.

6. And tell her not to change
The color of her hair.
The length of it blows
In the cool Antarctic air.
These are some of the memories
From places I have been.
But I guess that it will be awhile
Before I am out that way again.
