

Retrospect
K.D.Cashion – 1982

1. I know we promised "Forever and a day,"

But it seems that the years got in our way.

We thought we could make it - we didn't know how.

All the beads and the headbands seem so silly now.

Chorus:

Now don't go telling me what I used to say.

I expect from you a little more class.

I won't ask you what you told the kids.

The world was too slow

Or we were too fast.

2. A little excitement on the side,

But something important between us died.

We were not as liberal as we thought somehow.

We cannot trust each other

We're over thirty now.

Chorus –

I'm glad that we're parting

Before we had big fights.

Thanks for granting me

Visitation rights,

And thanks for not making

Unfair demands,

But don't ever expect

To see me again.

Chorus –
